DETAILED ACTION

Status of Claims

Claims 1-5, 7, 8 and 10 are as previously presented and Claims 6 and 9 are currently amended.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 1-3 and 6-8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Minnick (US 3,645,719).

Minnick is applied as discussed in the office action mailed 1/14/2009.

Claims 9 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by JP 07102302.

JP '302 as applied as discussed in the office action mailed 6/5/2009.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Claims 4 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Minnick as applied to claims 1 and 3 above, and further in view of Anderson (US 2002/0020108 A1)

Minnick in view of Anderson is applied as discussed in the office action mailed 6/5/2009.

Response to Arguments

The rejection of Claims 1-10 under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph has been withdrawn based on applicant's arguments. However, the arguments based on the rejection of the claims over 35 U.S.C. 102 and 103 are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that dolomite is an oxide. However, Minnick teaches that dolomite can also be in the form of a dihydride, $\text{Ca}(\text{OH})_2\text{Mg}(\text{OH})_2$ (column 4, line 11), which is not an oxide or an organic. Therefore, the product reads on containing no oxide binder. Applicant next argues that carbonate is organic. However, the examiner provides the publication by the Encyclopedia Britannica as evidence that carbonate is not organic (page 1). Applicant further argues that JP '302 (Hiroshi) is not capable of forming the claimed iron product. However, applicant does not distinguish between the claimed solid iron product and the green compact of JP '302. Also the dusts refer to intended use. The degree of compression force is also not claimed. Finally, applicant argues that Anderson does not teach "pressing and reforming dusts". This is a product by process limitation; additionally, one cannot show nonobviousness by attacking references individually where the rejections are based on combinations of references. See In re Keller, 642 F.2d 413, 208 USPQ 871 (CCPA 1981); In re Merck & Co., 800 F.2d 1091, 231 USPQ 375 (Fed. Cir. 1986).

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
